

AGILE VIRTUAL TEAMS

How to remain agile when co-location is not an option?

Virtual Instructure-based Training
Program (VILT)

In Association with

PETER IVANOV | Germany
— Global Speaker & Expert in Virtual Teams

Targeted Audience:

This program is designed for corporate, leaders and professionals looking for a paradigm shift, including Senior Managers, HR Managers, Entrepreneurs, Project Managers, PMO and Team Leads.

About the Program:

Agile working is a global trend building upon a collocated core team of experts. However in our increasingly complex world of AI, big data etc. the required experts might not be available in your city or not willing to relocate.

So how can you retain the agile rigor if your team is dispersed in several locations? How can you manage a core collocated team and international satellite members, establish a structured communication and optimal team culture in order to deliver outstanding results?

Key Learning Outcomes:

Establish a structured communication catering for personal and professional

Choose wisely time zones and locations for optimal agility

Establish a winning spirit despite the geographical distance, time zones & cultures

Set up a strategic product roadmap

Leverage on technology to engage with large remote agile teams Act manifesto.
